TOPIC ON 5th APRIL is “Spirituality in Charity and International Development ..”

Come, and from the comfort of your own home, on your own or with a friend or two, join our three special speakers who will this evening share their stories of their personal encounters in charitable outreach at home and/or abroad.

Our leaders in conversation will be

MIRIAM PELLICANO

NICK ABRAHAM

JOE WEHBE

Miriam is the Executive Manager of the House of Welcome - working for the rights, access and opportunity of forcibly displaced peoples. She has worked both locally and internationally with refugee populations to develop programs that promote the rights of displaced peoples.

Nick runs a construction & manufacturing company based in Sydney and Nepal, where he also spent a number of years establishing and running other international development projects.

Joe is a young writer, podcaster, real estate agent and ‘Doorman,’ who was a co-director of From the Ground Up in Nepal and later went on to create the Constant Student.
